2020 - TESTIMONIALS

"I and my editorial staff put our complete trust in Arthouse PR. By working with them, they have given us the ultimate account of the very best experiences and authentic aspects that Italy has to offer. We have thoroughly enjoyed working with Gary, Sharon, and their entire team as they go above and beyond to be accommodating. Every detail has been meticulously thought of from organizing itineraries to arranging translators, transportation, accommodation, to dietary requests. Arthouse PR is without hesitation, our favourite PR company we work with. Their hotel and property clients are truly some of the best in Italy."

Christine Philip, Managing Director,
Global Glam Magazine, USA

"Arthouse PR have an enthusiasm for their clients which is unlike the rest. I'm used to receiving generic press releases and media pitches that are sent out en-masse but it's clear that Arthouse put real thought into each one, tailoring it to suit my needs and interests. In this way they've created a genuine and trusting relationship. With years of media experience between them Sharon and Gary understand the business inside and out. They bend over backwards to satisfy journalist needs, are immediately responsive to requests and do everything they can to provide all the information and materials needed to craft great stories."

Caroline Hamilton, International journalist,
The Telegraph, Italy

"An important part of my role as a Private Travel Designer, is visiting properties in person, understanding the region in which they are located and the activities on offer. Doing so ensures that I can match my clients with the right property, vouch for the level of service and even suggest particular rooms and the best spot to enjoy the sunset. Sharon at Arthouse PR understands the need for attention to detail and as a result her FAM trips are meticulously well organised, from start to finish, and are some of the best FAM trips I have been on."

Janet Mactavish,
Luxury Travel Designer, UK

"I had one of the most beautiful experience traveling with Arthouse PR. Apart from the incredible destination that is Sardinia, I really appreciate the professionalism and kindness of the team prior/during and post experience! A real pleasure to work with! Hoping to travel again with you very soon again!"

Kenza Salahdine, Lifestyle Writer, The Resident
Magazine, USA

"It has been very giving and pleasant to work with Sharon and Gary. Their team is responsive, creative and willing to listen to us as a client, which I always appreciate. They got us in contact with interesting media outlets which resulted in good coverage of Hotel Rangá. Furthermore, they planned events that we participated in. The most giving part of our collaboration with Sharon and Gary is their personal touch and their understanding of our needs and capability to delivering exactly that."
